Managing Director

Mr. Rizzolo is the Managing Director with ePercept LLC. He is an expert on matters related to digital evidence and discovery strategy. Mr. Rizzolo is an attorney who has spent most of his career working at the confluence of law and technology. In legal, his current areas of practice include digital forensics, complex e-discovery, data analytics, and expert witness consulting services.

Mr. Rizzolo's relevant experience ranges from small matters representing individual litigants to some of the largest and most complex legal data exercises in the world, including large bank failures, "Obamacare" litigation, mass tort product liability cases, the Madoff disputes and high-profile criminal actions. He has led data and computer forensic teams responding to SEC, DOJ and OIG investigations. He has worked with U.S. and foreign clients on disputes involving mass torts, accountant's liability, securities and bank fraud, mergers & acquisitions, bankruptcy, intellectual property, and a variety of other civil and criminal claims. Mr. Rizzolo has advised in-house counsel and law firm management on systems strategy, discovery management, and information governance. He also managed an outsourced litigation support, IT and facilities management operation of 215 employees.

Before joining ePercept, Mr. Rizzolo co-founded Esicon Consulting, and held senior management and consulting positions with Control Risks Group, OmniVere, Navigant Consulting, Bowne & Company, and Arthur Andersen. During law school, he clerked for the United States Department of Justice Organized Crime Strike Force in Philadelphia. He ran Computer Forensics practices at both OmniVere and Navigant.

Mr. Rizzolo received a J.D. from Villanova University School of Law and a B.A. in English and Rhetoric from the University of Illinois. He publishes and speaks on topics related to electronic discovery, computer forensics, legal ethics, cyber security, and information technology. He is a member of the George Washington University Complex Litigation Center - Proportionality Initiative and is a past member of the 7th Circuit's E-discovery Pilot Program, where he was a Co-chair of the E-mediation Subcommittee. Mr. Rizzolo is also an Adjunct Professor teaching electronic discovery law at the Loyola University of Chicago School of Law.
