SECTION III - TRANSFERRING DIVISIONS - RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

READ CAREFULLY!! Note that if you do not comply with the requirements set forth below, your graduation may be postponed.

If approved to do so by the Office of the Dean, a student in the part-time division may transfer to the full-time division under the following conditions:

- a) A student in the part-time division who seeks to transfer to the full-time division before the third semester and graduate in three years (six fall or spring semesters) must complete a minimum of eight hours of summer courses.
- b) A student in the part-time division who seeks to transfer to the full-time division before the fourth semester and graduate in three years (six fall or spring semesters) must complete a minimum of eleven hours of summer courses.
- c) A student in the part-time division who seeks to transfer to the full-time division before the fifth semester and graduate in three years (six fall or spring semesters) must complete a minimum of fifteen hours of summer courses over two summers.

IMPORTANT: Students who do not complete the required number of summer hours as set forth above must either take course work in an additional semester (and graduation will be postponed) or be charged a substantial tuition adjustment fee that is determined by the number of required summer hours that are not completed.

SECTION IV - LIMITATIONS ON TRANSFERS

- a) Students may transfer divisions only once during their matriculation at Loyola University Chicago School of Law.
- b) Students may not transfer divisions for the final semester.
- c) All other semester course-load requirements apply to students who transfer divisions. A student who transfers to full-time must register for a minimum of 12 and a maximum of 17 hours in all subsequent fall and spring semesters.
- d) Students who transfer to the full-time division are considered to be full-time students for all registration purposes.

SECTION V - BARBRI FEE

Students who enter Loyola as a first-year part-time law student, and switch from the part-time to the full-time division will be charged an additional fee to equalize the BARBRI fee.

SECTION VI - ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEWING

If a first year part-time division student transfers to the full-time division and also would like to participate in the fall on-campus interviewing program, the division transfer must be finalized and occur before a date – normally in early July – specified by the Career Services Office. Please contact the Career Services Office for information. Division transfer class ranks are not converted until the spring semester following the transfer, transferring students will list their part-time division class rank until the following spring semester. Students who remain part-time for the fall of their second year are not eligible to participate in the on-campus interviewing program that fall. They may participate in OCI the following fall.

SECTION VII - DEADLINE

To allow for processing, the deadline for submission of this form is one week before your scheduled registration day if you had remained a part-time student. Students who submit this form after that date and subsequently register as a part-time student will have their registrations voided and they must reregister as a full-time student.
