

Purdue -
Dr. John Georgeoff

Education 606, International Education

- I. Introduction
 - A. Definition of Terms
 - B. Rationale for a Study of International Education
 - C. Historical Development of International Education
 - D. Forms and Aspects of International Education

- II. International Educational Organizations
 - A. UNESCO
 - B. UNICEF

- III. National Governmental Educational Organizations:
AID, Peace Corps (educational programs)

- IV. Sources for Research in International Education
 - A. Library
 - B. Archival
 - C. Internet

- V. History of the Involvement of the United States in International Education
 - A. Beginnings of America's International Commitments
 - B. Period of Isolationism
 - C. Influence of World War II
 - D. The United States as a Post-War "Super Power"
 - E. U.S. Development of International Programs in Education
 - 1. Purposes
 - 2. Methods
 - 3. Evaluation

- VI. International Education as an Element in Foreign Policy
 - A. Education in Former Colonial Empires
 - 1. English
 - 2. French
 - 3. Dutch
 - 4. Belgian
 - 5. Portuguese
 - 6. Spanish
 - B. Education as an Element of American Foreign Policy
 - C. Education as an Element in the Foreign Policy of the Former Soviet Union in Historical Perspective

- VII. Private Organizations Involved in International Educational Activities
 - A. Chartered Organizations for International Education
 - 1. IIE
 - 2. IREX
 - 3. American Schools, etc.

- B. University Sponsored Programs
 - 1. Individual University Programs
 - 2. Inter-University Programs, such as MUCIA
- C. Scholarly Societies, as Council of Learned Societies
- D. Foundations
 - 1. Ford Foundation
 - 2. Rockefeller Foundations
 - 3. Near East Foundation
 - 4. Other
- E. Religious

VIII. Economic Development and Education (Hypothetical Case Studies)

IX. The Impact of Programs in International Education upon the Developing Nations

X. International Studies and Area Studies--Training and Research Programs in International Education

- XI. Cultural Exchange Programs
- A. USIA of the Department of State
 - B. Great Britain
 - C. German (Goethe House)
 - D. Russian

- XII. Technical Assistance and Education
- A. Health Education
 - B. Engineering Education
 - C. Agricultural Education