

CIECAP

Comparative/International Education Graduate Program Data Form

A. University name	Loyola University Chicago	university location Chicago, Illinois
Program name	Cultural and Educational Policy Studies
C/IE concentration	Comparative and International Education
School/College	School of Education / Graduate School
Department	N/A
Center	Center for Comparative Education(CCE)
Website	http://luc.edu/cce/

B. Graduate Program Requirements

Degree types offered	M.A. in Comparative Ed.	M.Ed. in International Ed.	M.A./J.D. in Comparative Law/Ed.	Ph.D. in Comparative Ed.
Credit hours required:
total	24	30	90 = 25(M.A.) + 65(J.D.)	60
concentration	9	9	9(M.A.)	15
research methods	3	6	3(M.A.)	9
other requirements	thesis; oral defense	*comprehensive exam	thesis; oral defense *see notes below	*comprehensive exam dissertation
Credit requirement based on: SEMESTER credit hours <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> QUARTER credit hours <input type="checkbox"/>

C. C/IE Concentration Course Titles

	Course #	Course Title
	ELPS 455	Comparative Education
	ELPS 456	Comparative Perspectives on Education and Democratization
	ELPS 457	Comparative Theory
	ELPS 447	History of Modern European Education
	ELPS 550	Seminar on Globalization and Education
	ELPS 555	Special Topics in Comparative Education
	title of introductory course in comparative education

D. Program Contacts

Director	Dr. Erwin H. Epstein, CCE Director	E-mail address ee Epstein@luc.edu
Postal Address	Center for Comparative Education Loyola University Chicago 820 N. Michigan Avenue Chicago, IL 60611 USA

E. Additional Notes

* M.A./J.D. dual program requires acceptance by the Law School and the School of Education; the course sequence proposes students select ELPS 565 (International Education Internship) and LAW 588 (International Law Externship) for experience with governmental or non-governmental agencies; students complete coursework for the programs concurrently.

*M.A. comprehensive exams= one 4-hour sitting; Ph.D. comprehensive exams= three essays completed over three weeks

Last updated

Researcher Initials