

CIECAP

Comparative/International Education Graduate Program Data Form

	university location
A. University name	University of Oxford Oxford, England
Program name	Education
C/IE concentration	Comparative and International Education
School/College	Education
Department	Education/ Centre collaboration with the School for Interdisciplinary Area Studies
Center	Centre for Comparative and International Education
Website	http://www.education.ox.ac.uk/research/resgroup/cie/index.php

B. Graduate Program Requirements

Degree types offered	MSc in Education (Comp. & Intl. Edu.)	DPhil in Education (Comp. & Intl. Edu.)
Credit hours required:
total	N/A	N/A concentration
research methods		see below*
other requirements	dissertation	first year portfolio;
		dissertation; viva voce examination; 6 terms residency in Oxford

Credit requirement based on: SEMESTER credit hours  QUARTER credit hours

C. C/IE Concentration Course Titles

	Course #	Course Title
	*	Comparative and International Education I: Theoretical, Methodological and Systemic Studies
		Comparative and International Education II: Education in Developing Countries
		Foundations of Educational Research

*** title of introductory course in comparative education

D. Program Contacts

	E-mail address
Director	Professor David Phillips david.phillips@education.ox.ac.uk
Postal Address	University of Oxford Department of Education 15 Norham Gardens Oxford, England OX2 6PY U.K.

E. Additional Notes

*the three components described constitute Part I of the MSc degree; Part II is a dissertation of 20,000 words;
for Part I, Comparative Education I and II are examined by means of two three-hour written examination papers;
Foundation in Research Methods is examined by means of two written assignments

Last updated

Researcher initials