

The Center for Catholic School Effectiveness
Loyola University Chicago

Presents

VISION, COLLABORATION, RESULTS
SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR BAY AREA DEPARTMENT CHAIRS:
JUNE 18-20, 2007

Where: DeLaSalle High School, Concord, CA

Who: Department Chairs, Division Leaders, Assistant Principals for Academics,
Academic Deans

Cost: $460.00

Program: This institute is designed to deepen the knowledge base and skill set needed for department chairs to function effectively as learning leaders within their schools, supporting school mission and student achievement. Sessions will bridge theory and research-based best practices and will include samples, templates, self-assessment and planning tools, hands-on activities, and collaborative problem solving.

Skills to be addressed:

The ability of department chairs to:

- Use data for instructional decision making;
- Develop and support a learning community culture and build teacher learning teams;
- Coach and monitor standards-based, learning-focused curriculum design;
- Supervise and coach teachers to improve instruction;
- Plan effective professional development;
- Use time and resources for what's important.

Institute Faculty:

Lorraine A. Ozar, Ph.D., Director, of the Center for Catholic School Effectiveness
Loyola University Chicago

Lisa Tortorich, M.A., Assistant Principal for Academics
Bishop O'Dowd High School, Oakland, CA

Eric Castro, Social Studies Department Chair
St. Ignatius College Preparatory, San Francisco, CA

Schedule: June 18 and 19: 8:30AM -3:30PM ; June 20: 8:30AM – 12:30PM

Registration form available at: www.dlshs.org

For more information contact Lorraine Ozar, Ph.D., CCSE Director: lozar@luc.edu
Or Mary Ann Mattos, Assistant Principal for Academic Life: mattosm@dlshs.org