

The Values Across the Curriculum Worksheet

Loyola University Chicago New Core Curriculum	See How Your Completed Courses can be applied to Values Across the Curriculum
*courses completed Fall 2004 and Spring 2005 require a grade of C- or better to qualify
Understanding and Promoting Justice	Course	Grade	Semester/Year
1 Course – Analyze and appraise the functions and impacts of specific social practices, organizations, and policies established in the name of justice.
Understanding Diversity in the United States or the World	Course	Grade	Semester/Year
1 Course – Recognize that human diversity is complex and variegated, and perceive the interdependence of cultures in domestic and global terms.
Understanding Spirituality or Faith in Action in the World	Course	Grade	Semester/Year
1 Course – Evaluate the significance of faith traditions and spiritual formation in life-long actions and decisions.
Promoting Civic Engagement or Leadership	Course	Grade	Semester/Year
1 Course – Demonstrate an understanding of the responsibilities of leadership and its relationship to the Jesuit tradition, and promoting leadership possibilities and civic engagement.

If you have any questions, make an appointment with your college/school advisor.

Student ID #: _____

College/School: _____

Name: _____

E-Mail Address: _____

your signature

date

advisor's signature
(optional)

date

