

Chicagoland Partners for ELL Education
Symposium for Aptakistic-Tripp 102 Administrators
December 16, 2008
9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

REVISED AGENDA

December 16, 2008 – Day 2

1. Continuing the conversation from December 2, 2008
2. Language Minority Education Programs – What they can and cannot achieve.
3. What does this mean for high stakes assessment – presentation by Melissa Marzullo and Annette Wozniczka
3. The Four Circle Models/The Framework for School Improvement
4. Applying the ELL models to this theory – presentation by Amy Leese on draft RtI model created by 102 teachers, Amy Leese and consultant Joan McGarry
5. WIDA Standards and the The Can Do Statements – What this means for instruction and assessment – materials provided by Amy Leese for teaching teams
6. Best Practices in ELL education – Fostering collaborative learning environments
7. Metaphors for ELL education
8. Closure and Evaluation

Supported by the Chicagoland Partners for English Language Learner (CPELL), U.S. DOE funded grant