Instructions for Statements of Purpose

■ The Graduate School; School of Communication, Technology and Public Service; School of Professional Studies

Please write a brief statement describing your academic and research interests as well as your professional goals. Please note that departments may have a research paper requirement that needs to be completed in addition to this section. PhD and MA applicants to education programs should refer to the instructions for the School of Education.

FOR CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY APPLICANTS ONLY

When you submit your personal statement, you are free to craft it as you wish, but either within or at the end of your statement, please respond to the following questions:

1. What is your specific area of interest in clinical psychology: child and family; general adult; health psychology; or other (specify)?
2. Among the many alternatives, why are you applying to Loyola University Chicago?
3. What relevant professional research experiences have you had that have prepared you for advanced training in psychology?
4. What are your short-term and long-term professional goals?
5. Please identify at least two clinical psychology faculty with whom you would like to work during your graduate training. You can consult our program's website for the latest information on faculty interests and research areas.

Please do not forget to include a curriculum vitae or personal resume as part of your application to the Clinical Psychology program.

■ Graduate School of Business

Please write a short essay outlining your professional plans and career objectives. We are particularly interested in the following areas:

1. How prior work experience and academic training have helped to shape your plans
2. Why you feel the Loyola University Chicago GSB may be a good fit for you.
3. Please forward a current resume.

■ School of Education

Please write a narrative (minimum of one page and a maximum of three pages) that describes your:

1. Academic/research interests and your professional goals, and
2. life experiences that have influenced your view of social justice.

CURRENT RESUME (IF REQUIRED BY YOUR PROGRAM):

Please attach a resume that highlights your work experience relevant to your professional goals.

■ Institute of Pastoral Studies

Please provide a statement (approximately 3-4 typed pages) describing your academic and experiential background compatible with the pursuit of this degree or certificate. Discuss in detail your life/career interests in pursuing this program of study. If you are applying for the M.A. in Spirituality, please include which track (spiritual direction or contemporary spirituality) you intend to pursue.

FOR PASTORAL COUNSELING APPLICANTS ONLY

In order to make a careful assessment of your application, we wish to get to know you as well as possible. Toward this end, please compose an extended essay/statement of approximately 6–10 double-spaced pages which will introduce you to us. The following items indicate topics which should be addressed. Please note that your personal statement will be considered confidential.

1. Write a brief autobiographical essay, focusing particularly on what you consider key themes in your personal development.
2. Describe your current situation in your personal development.
3. Who and/or what have influenced you to pursue pastoral counseling?
4. Describe your educational journey.
5. How would you characterize your learning style?
6. What ministerial experiences have most affected you?
7. Upon completion of this program, how/where/with whom do you see yourself ministering as a pastoral counselor?
8. What contemporary issues do you see as most in need of being influenced by spiritual values and beliefs? If you are not accepted in this program, what are your alternative professional plans?

■ School of Law: M.J. Programs

Please write a brief statement (200 words) describing your academic interest and professional goals.

MJ/MSW PROGRAM

Applicants to the dual degree program in Jurisprudence and Social Work must include a section in the statement of purpose that addresses the applicant's interest in and professional goals for the M.J. portion of the program. This is in addition to the required sections for the MSW program listed under the School of Social Work.

■ Niehoff School of Nursing

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING APPLICANTS

Please provide a statement describing your professional goals and area of academic specialty interest.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN NURSING APPLICANTS

Please provide a statement describing your professional and academic goals. Indicate your intended area of research for this program. You must submit a published article with you as author or a paper done for a graduate class as part of your completed application.

■ School of Social Work

Applicants must submit a personal statement addressing their reasons for seeking professional social work education. Important areas to include are:

1. What are the important values in your life? How do you think these relate to your interest in becoming a professional social worker?
2. What are your professional goals? Why have you decided to seek professional education at this time? Why have you selected a clinical program?
3. Discuss how your life experiences have led you to be the type of person who would be a good social worker.
4. What are the influences within your family, school and community, which have been important in your decision to become a social worker?
5. Have you had social work experiences as an employee or volunteer in a social work agency or other organization? Discuss this experience.
6. How have these influenced your interest in becoming a social worker?
7. If you were previously educated for practice in another field, discuss your reasons for changing to social work.
8. What areas of study, formal or informal have helped you to develop a perspective on the dilemmas of humankind?
9. Discuss your contact with cultures, groups or individuals different than your own and what you learned from the experience
10. Is there anything else that you feel might be useful to the Admissions Committee in making its decision?

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS

Federal regulation prohibits inquiry into person aspects, such as disadvantage due to physical handicap or adverse circumstances due to racial or economic factors. However, applicants who wish consideration to be given to such conditions should explain their situation in the personal statement.

STATEMENT ON HUMAN BIOLOGY

Briefly indicate the course(s) or self-directed study that you have completed with content on human biology. This should be brief but demonstrate where the applicant has gained knowledge of human physical development. This may, for example, be a course in high school or college, readings or related experience.

MSW/MJ PROGRAM

Applicants to the dual degree program in Social Work and Jurisprudence must include a section in the statement of purpose regarding the Master of Jurisprudence program as described above under the School of Law: MJ Programs.

PHILANTHROPY

Philanthropy applicants should follow the instructions for The Graduate School Statement of Purpose.
