

1909 Plan of Chicago Centennial Celebration

BURNHAM AND BENNETT'S "ORIGINALITY, DARING, AND GENIUS:" PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS

Discussion in two panels
MUNDELEIN AUDITORIUM, LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO
October 9, 2009 2:30pm – 5:45 p.m.

2:30-4:00 Chicago's Environmental Impact: Past and Future

Ted Karamanski, Department of History, LUC

Park or Port: Burnham and the Environmental Decision of 1909

J. Marshall Eames, Center for Urban Environmental Research and Policy, LUC

Environmental Implications of the Burnham Plan for Chicago's North Side Neighborhoods

Nancy Tuchman, Center for Urban Environmental Research and Policy, LUC

Cleaning Rivers and Changing Course

4:00-4:15 Break

4:15-5:45 Planning a Livable Chicago: The Northside and Beyond

Costas Spirou, Department of Sociology, National Louis University

From the White City to the Tourist City

Eleanor Roemer, Friends of the Parks

The Last Four Miles: Completing Chicago's Lakefront Parks

Michael Chrzastowski, Illinois State Geological Survey

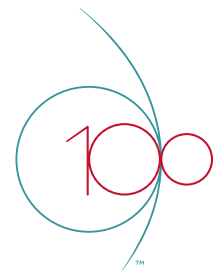

Coastal Geography and The Last Four Miles

Carol Sonnenschein, Chicago Metropolis 2020

What Would Burnham Do?: A Plan for the 21st Century

Sponsored by
Urban Studies and the Sociology Department

BURNHAM PLAN CENTENNIAL
PROGRAM PARTNER
BURNHAMPLAN100.ORG