

NORTH LAKE SHORE EARTH DAY SATURDAY APRIL 12 9 AM-4 PM

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

QUINLAN LIFE SCIENCES BUILDING • 1060 W SHERIDAN ROAD

FREE ADMISSION AND PARKING!

North Lake Shore Earth Day features more than 15 panels and workshops where expert speakers will explore every aspect of caring for the environment—globally and locally. Enjoy a green fair, children’s programming and meet the businesses and associations that support environmental action!

COME LEARN ABOUT...

- Air and water quality issues
- Energy-free transport
- Global warming and what you can do
- Organic gardening
- Reducing home energy costs
- Green parenting and shopping green
- Loyola’s LEED Certified Information Commons and bio-diesel lab through scheduled tours

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: Dr. Al Gini, Loyola Professor and NPR Personality and Debra Shore, Commissioner, Water Reclamation District. WORKSHOP PRESENTERS INCLUDE: Suzane Malec-McKenna, Commissioner, Chicago Dept. of Environment and Mary Ann Smith, Alderman, 48th Ward.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CALL 773-508-7450, CHECK OUT
WWW.LUC.EDU/EARTHDAY OR EMAIL SROBER6@LUC.EDU

