Through a Glass Darkly: The U.S. Holocaust in Central America

Tuesday, Oct. 23rd, 7pm, Crown Center Auditorium, Lake Shore Campus

Through a Glass Darkly: The U.S. Holocaust in Central America* by Thomas H. Melville describes Iowa-farmer-turned-Maryknoll-missionary Ron Hennessey's conversion from being an unapologetic patriot from America's heartland to a staunch opponent of Ronald Reagan's policies in Central America—policies that occasionally threatened Hennessey's life. Hennessey's story has a subtext: America's ideals of freedom, democracy, and progress-with-justice have been violated abroad by one U.S. president after another. A must read for anyone who wants to understand America's foreign policy of the past 50 years!

Presenters Tom Melville and George Mische have extensive backgrounds in U.S. foreign policy and U.S. involvement in Vietnam, Latin America and the Middle East. They have spent over 40 years bringing awareness to the American public regarding the deadly U.S. international entanglements around the world and have worked extensively to change the U.S. government's public policies.

Join us Tuesday, Oct. 23rd, 7pm, at The Crown Center Auditorium, Lake Shore Campus. The event is free and open to the public. Copies of the book will be available for sale at the event. Parking information may be obtained at <http://www.luc.edu/parking/visitor.shtml>
