

GIRLSTUDIES

A COLLOQUIUM ON GIRLS ACROSS CULTURES

Girl Studies is an emergent field of interdisciplinary inquiry that focuses on girls' interests, experiences and culture in an era of global transformation. Join pioneering scholars from Loyola, DePaul, Northwestern, and Le Moyne who will discuss coming of age, identity construction and mass consumption among US girls, Muslim schoolgirls, Japanese Gothic Lolita girls, Desi (South Asian American) girls, and Zimbabwe girls.

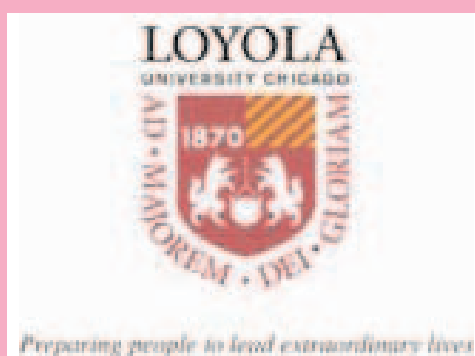

Saturday, April 12, 2008 | 9:00 am to 5:30 pm.

Piper Hall | Lakeshore Campus | Loyola University Chicago

INFO: Prof. Laura Miller | lmille2@luc.edu | 508-3469

Prof. Marcia Hermansen | mherman@luc.edu | 508-2345

ADMISSION FREE WITH REGISTRATION (FOR LUNCH)

SPONSORED BY THE DEAN'S SPECIAL ACTIVITY FUND | ANTHROPOLOGY | THEOLOGY | THE GANNON CENTER FOR WOMEN AND LEADERSHIP | WOMEN'S STUDIES AND GENDER STUDIES