2009–2010 FEDERAL WORK-STUDY APPEAL

Student Name: _____
(Please print)

Loyola ID: _____
(Your 11-digit Loyola ID number begins 0000.)

Please indicate on the line below the Loyola University Chicago office or department, or approved Federal Work-Study Community Service location, where you are working or plan to be hired at.

Please indicate the amount of your Federal Work-Study award you have already earned during the 2009–2010 academic year, as of today’s date. If you are currently working in a Federal Work-Study position and are requesting an increase in your award, please attach a copy of your most recent pay stub.

How many hours do you plan to work (per week)? _____

Hourly wage (if known): _____

Please list the amount of income you estimate to earn from today’s date through the end of the academic year:

Please revise my financial aid award to include a Federal Work-Study award. I understand that appeals are only granted as funds are available. I also understand that a continuing student whose Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was received by the federal processor after Loyola’s March 1, 2009, priority deadline is a late applicant and may be considered for a Federal Work-Study award only after appeals have been processed for students who applied in advance of the deadline date.

Federal Work-Study is a need-based financial aid program. Appeals from students who do not demonstrate financial need on the FAFSA, or those whose need has already been met through other aid programs, will not be approved.
