The Illinois General Assembly has mandated (23 Illinois Administrative Code) that students (or their parents) must provide documentation of their Illinois residency in order to be eligible for the State of Illinois Monetary Award Program (MAP) Grant. State of Residency does not affect tuition charges at Loyola University Chicago or federal financial aid.

We need to verify your state of residency to determine your eligibility for the MAP Grant. Any of the following documents may be used to prove Illinois residency. However, more than one may be necessary to document Illinois residency, so include more than one if possible.

Dependent student: The custodial parent(s) of a dependent student must reside in Illinois on the date the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is completed in order to be considered an Illinois resident. For example, if the FAFSA was filed on February 17, 2009, you must provide documentation that shows your parent was an Illinois resident on or before that date.

Check document being submitted and attach to this form—only one is required:

- Parent's Illinois or federal income tax return with an Illinois address
 - Illinois high school or college transcript
 - Parent's Illinois driver's license
 - Parent's utility bills
 - Parent's rental lease

Independent student: An independent student must have resided in Illinois for a minimum of 12 consecutive months immediately prior to the first day of school in order to be considered an Illinois resident. To be an Illinois resident for the 2009–2010 school year, the relevant dates would be September 1, 2008 through August 31, 2009. The student must be able to document 12 continuous months of Illinois residency with one or more of the documents listed below.

Check all documents being submitted and attach to this form:

- 12 months' utility bills
- Residential lease(s) covering 12 month period
- 12 months' wage and tax statements (IRS form W-2)
- 12 months' statement of benefits history from the Illinois Department of Public Aid
- 12 months' statement of benefits from the Illinois Department of Employment Security

Note for independent students: The above types of documentation may be combined to equal 12 months of items; for example nine months' paychecks and three months' Public Aid statements.
