

Introducing EMERGE

The Training and Development department is pleased to introduce EMERGE—a series of training programs that will enhance your personal and professional development. Become the leader you were meant to be through EMERGE.

Enrollment for EMERGE is available through Loyola Marketplace, an easy to use system that contains full program descriptions, dates and locations. Click on this link to access Loyola Marketplace: <http://www.luc.edu/emerger>

EMERGE programs are offered at no cost to the participant; please read the course descriptions for the target audience and any pre-class assignment. The Summer 2008 schedule runs from June through September; the Fall schedule will be announced in mid-September. Closed sessions may be arranged for intact workgroups.
