Terms and Obligations:
Contractual Agreement and Eligibility for On Campus Housing: If this application is accepted and approved by Loyola University Chicago, the application will automatically convert to a residence hall contract (also referred to as a housing agreement) between the occupant and the University. The contract grants the occupant a limited license to use and occupy an assigned room under the terms and conditions stated in the contract, without establishing a landlord/tenant relationship or vesting any property interests in the occupant. No deletions or amendments to this contract will be accepted without prior consent from the Department of Residence Life. In interpreting the contract, the laws of the state of Illinois will apply. Assignment Policy: The inability to honor assignment preferences will not void the contract. The University reserves the right to change room assignments and occupancy levels or to terminate or refuse to accept a housing agreement, in the interest of health, discipline, housing needs, or welfare of the occupant or other occupants. The occupant may not transfer his/her right to occupy a residence hall to anyone else and may not sublet any part of the premises. Damages: The occupant will pay for any damages to his/her room and the room furnishings. Liability charges for damage done in corridors, stairs, washrooms and common areas of the residence hall will be divided among all occupants living in the hall unless the responsible person(s) is (are) determined. Room damages are recorded on the room inventory form every time the occupant changes rooms and/ or checks out. Liability: The University is not responsible for theft, loss or damage to occupant personal property and encourages all occupants to carry appropriate personal insurance. Belongings left after the contract closing date will be considered abandoned property and will be disposed of by the University. Check in and out/ Room Care: The Occupant may move into the residence halls at times listed on their assignment notice. Upon moving into the assigned room, each student will complete, sign and turn in a Room Inventory Form, which will be an accurate and complete record of the contents and conditions of the room. The occupant shall give proper care to the room assigned and its furnishings. Students are responsible for cleaning their room, removing waste materials and maintaining sanitation and safety conditions acceptable to the Department of Residence Life. The Occupant shall not move University furniture out of his/her room. Furniture allocated to common areas shall not be removed from these areas. The occupant is not allowed to paint his/ her room. Room Entry: The university reserves without restrictions, the right to allow authorized personnel to enter occupant rooms. Authorized University personnel may remove items that are in violation of University, federal, state or municipal regulations. A reasonable effort shall be made to have occupants in question present if their rooms are to be searched. The occupant will be informed as soon as possible after such an entry is made and advised if authorized staff has discovered any violations. Rules and Regulations: Residents are required to comply with the laws of the United States of America, the state of Illinois, all ordinances and regulations of the city of Chicago as well as Loyola University Chicago policies, procedures, rules and regulations. Failure on the part of the resident to comply with these laws, ordinances, policies, procedures, rules and regulations, shall constitute a breach of contractual agreement and may result in fine, removal from residence hall, and/or cancellation of this agreement at the option of Loyola University Chicago.

I have read and understand the terms and obligations provided for above, on the agreement, and agree to be bound by the provisions of the same. I, the undersigned, officially submit my housing agreement as of _____ 2007. Signature: _____
