WELCOME...

To the new school year!

STUDENT LOUNGE...

The IPS student lounge is located just down the hall from the IPS suite in Lewis Towers room 625. There is a refrigerator and a microwave for your convenience. Feel free to bring your lunch, store it in the fridge, and warm it in the microwave. Just be sure to put your name on it! It is a great place to meet and greet your fellow students, eat lunch, or just to sit and read. This lounge is for IPS students only. No classes or meetings will be held in the lounge. We only ask that you clean up after yourselves.

GRADUATING?

If you plan to graduate in May or August of 2010, your Declaration of Intent to Graduate form and either the $75 fee or proof of payment of fee needs to be handed into the IPS Office by December 1st. For a complete description of the application process, go to: [http://www.luc.edu/regrec/graduati

IPSO FACTO...

Ipsos Facto is the weekly IPS newsletter that you will receive via e-mail every week. It is our way of contacting students regarding meetings, deadlines, class changes and special announcements on up-coming events and other information. It is our weekly communication lifeline to our students. If you wish to place an announcement in Ipsos, call or see Randy Gibbons at IPS or e-mail rgibbon@luc.edu. The deadline is Thursday at 9am for the Ipsos coming out the following weekend.

STUDENT INFO SHEET

Student Information Sheets will be sent to your Loyola E-MAIL. Please fill just one out (if you are taking multiple classes,) and return it to the IPS office by 9/21. We use this information to update our student statistics, check that the contact information and class information we have for you is accurate, and to provide a student directory to those of you who are interested.

CHANGE OF GRADE

The length of time a student is allowed to carry an “I” is until the end of the following semester to complete any work necessary to receive a letter grade. If they do not comply, they will receive an “F” for the course, unless there is good reason (other than work, family duties, and other courses,) of which the instructor approves. Faculty will be asked to comply with this procedure, and students will be made aware of this policy by its posting on the web and in class on the syllabus.

GET INVOLVED!

CHARIS MINISTRIES <http://www.charisministries.org/>

The mission of Charis Ministries is to provide the opportunity for Spiritual growth in the Catholic tradition for men and women in their 20s and 30s utilizing the gifts of Ignatian Spirituality: the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, SJ, and the Ignatian prayer and discernment heritage. Charis Ministries is an outreach of the Chicago Province of the Society of Jesus, the Jesuits, and our lay colleagues.

HAPPENINGS AND OPPORTUNITIES

MASS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT & WATER TOWER CAMPUS BLOCK PARTY

The Mass of the Holy Spirit which observes the beginning of the new academic year will be held Wednesday, September 2nd at 10 a.m. in St. James Chapel, located at the northeast corner of Rush and Pearson streets, directly across the street from Lewis Towers. Immediately following the mass, students and faculty are welcome to attend the University’s annual block party picnic on Pearson Street between State St. and Wabash. Enjoy complimentary food, drinks, and music. Entrance is free with a valid Loyola ID.

VATICAN II – NOW MORE THAN EVER!

Tuesday, September 29, 6:00 pm., Free at LUMA*

Vatican Council II: Opening Procession, Franklin McMahon
Fifty years after Angelo Roncalli became Pope John XXIII and stunned the world by calling an Ecumenical Council, and forty-seven years since the Council first gathered in October 1962, a panel of Church leaders and pastoral educators will review the key teachings of Vatican II and discuss its relevance to the dynamics and challenges of the present. Loyola’s Institute of Pastoral Studies, in conjunction with LUMA’s exhibition of Franklin McMahon’s iconic drawings of the Council, will sponsor an evening of presentations and discussion.

* All events take place at Loyola University Museum of Art (LUMA) 820 N. Michigan Ave., William G. and Marilyn M. Simpson Lecture Hall, Water Tower Campus. The entrance is just south of the Hershey’s store on Baumhart.

IMMERSION IN COLOMBIA SYMPOSIUM

Please mark your calendars for: “Immersion in Colombia: Interdisciplinary Reactions to Colombia's approach to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child,” hosted by Loyola's Center for the Human Rights of Children. The symposium will be held September 29, 2009 in Kasbeer Hall (Water Tower Campus, 25 E Pearson) from 4-7 pm.

Dr. Clemencia Ramirez Herrera, director of research at the Universidad de san Buenaventura in Bogota, Colombia will be the keynote speaker. In coordination with Loyola's Center for the Human Rights of Children, Dr. Ramirez Herrera hosted the twelve graduate students who participated in the 2009 immersion trip to Colombia. She is also a member of the International Society for the Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect.

Also presenting will be several graduate students from the fields of law, psychology and social work. A discussion will take place between audience members and the 12 graduate students who participated in the immersion trip. Refreshments will be provided. To RSVP please contact Eddie Bruyere at ebuyere@luc.edu.

THE LIGHT SHINES IN THE DARKNESS AN ADVENT DAY OF REFLECTION

with Jack Shea

A Special Event Hosted by Loyola University Chicago
Institute of Pastoral Studies

DECEMBER 5, 2009, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

MUNDELEIN CENTER AUDITORIUM LAKE SHORE CAMPUS

The Advent-Christmas season is a paradox. In the midst of increased stress and busyness, it invites us to wonder and to reflect. We will accept this invitation and spend a day “treasuring the Christmas mystery in our hearts.” Using the Gospels, poems, stories, and spiritual teachings from world religions, we will explore how the light shines in the darkness, even though the darkness does not understand it and seeks to overcome it. The day will conclude with an Advent Prayer Service.

Join us at: Mundelein Center Auditorium, 1032 North Sheridan Road, Lake Shore Campus

The fee is $75. Gathering coffee compliments of World Library Publications. Lunch and snacks are included in the fee. Registration will be capped at 300 attendees so register early! On-campus parking is available for $7 (cash only). For more information, call Susann at 1-800-424-1238 or email sozuk@luc.edu. Mustard Seed Bookstore will be staffing a book table of relevant resources. (Registration material is found at:)
