Rose's Mother

Rose's mother had something to smile about. Rose was nursed back to health at Upendo Village, an AIDS hospice founded by Sr. Florence Muia, MA Pastoral Counseling, 2001 alum and native Kenyan, in Lake Naivasha. Lisa and other IPS students were studying social justice in East Africa in May of 2007 when this photo was taken. "Rose's Mother" also garnered the cover of the 2008 summer issue of Company, the World of Jesuits and their Friends, magazine.
