

THE LIGHT SHINES IN THE DARKNESS AN ADVENT DAY OF REFLECTION

A Special Event Hosted by Loyola University Chicago Institute of Pastoral Studies

DECEMBER 5, 2009, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

MUNDELEIN CENTER AUDITORIUM LAKE SHORE CAMPUS

The Advent-Christmas season is a paradox. In the midst of increased stress and busyness, it invites us to wonder and to reflect. We will accept this invitation and spend a day “treasuring the Christmas mystery in our hearts.” Using the Gospels, poems, stories, and spiritual teachings from world religions, we will explore how the light shines in the darkness, even though the darkness does not understand it and seeks to overcome it. The day will conclude with an Advent Prayer Service.

Join us at: Mundelein Center Auditorium, 1032 North Sheridan Road, Lake Shore Campus

The fee is $75. Gathering coffee compliments of World Library Publications. Lunch and snacks are included in the fee. Registration will be capped at 300 attendees so register early! On-campus parking is available for $7 (cash only). For more information, call Susann at 1-800-424-1238 or email sozuk@luc.edu. Please go to: http://www.luc.edu/values/campus/vt_lakeshore.html for an interactive campus map. Mustard Seed Bookstore will be staffing a book table of relevant resources.

JOHN (JACK) SHEA is currently Director of Program and Processes Development for the Ministry Leadership Center which creates ministerial formation programming for the senior leadership of five Catholic healthcare systems. He is also a theologian and storyteller who lectures nationally and internationally on storytelling in world religions, faith-based health care, contemporary spirituality, and the spirit at work movement.
