

The Center for Ministry Development Certificate in Youth Ministry Studies

2009-2010 Offerings

Since 1979, the Certificate in Youth Ministry Studies program has been training leaders across the United States for Catholic ministry with young and older adolescents.

Catholic Youth Ministry Training is designed to educate leaders in Catholic parishes and schools on the vision and practice of Renewing the Vision--A Framework for Catholic Youth Ministry (USCCB); correlated with the national competency standards for certification as developed by the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry in conjunction with the USCCB.

Integrated and Practical Ministry Education presents the knowledge, skills, practical tools and techniques needed for creative and comprehensive ministry with youth in parish and Catholic school settings; incorporates theology, developmental insights and practical ministry implementation; offers training and practical resources for providing adolescent catechesis within a comprehensive youth ministry framework.

Certificates are awarded by the sponsoring agency after the successful completion of all 8 courses.

Courses, dates and instructors, Fall 2009

Principles of Youth Ministry September 26-27, 2009 Tom East, instructor
Principles of Youth Ministry presents the foundational understandings and principles for developing an effective, comprehensive ministry with young and older adolescents. It examines the dynamics of promoting healthy adolescent development and faith growth. It presents the vision and principles for comprehensive youth ministry and a model for developing comprehensive youth ministry which incorporates developmentally appropriate youth programming, strengthens family life, involves young people as integral members of the faith community, and collaborates with civic organizations in a common effort to promote positive youth development.

Practices of Youth Ministry December 5-6, 2009 Christina Semmel, instructor
Practices of Youth Ministry explores the development of comprehensive youth ministry through the collaborative sharing of the resources in the community. Rooted in a theological and pastoral vision of community life, this course develops foundational understandings that will assist leaders in setting and implementing a vision for dynamic ministry with youth. This will include skills for advocacy, planning and organizing youth ministry efforts. Methods for collaborative leadership among ministries and within ministry teams will also be developed.

Courses, dates and instructors, Spring 2010

Foundations for Ministry Leadership February 27-28, 2010 Vikki Shepp, instructor
Foundations for Ministry Leadership explores the theology, principles, and practices of effective leadership in Christian ministry. Participants will explore current leadership concepts and approaches, as well as Christian perspectives on leadership. Participants will also learn how to empower individuals and teams of leaders for ministry with youth. The course combines theory presentation with experiential learning as participants explore (a) leadership theory and an assessment of styles for effective leadership; (b) theological and pastoral foundations for understanding leadership and empowerment; and (c) processes and tools for inviting, preparing and nurturing adult and youth leaders in ministry.

Skills for Christian Leadership April 24-25, 2010 Ann Marie Eckert, instructor
Skills for Christian Leadership addresses the theories and skills needed for principle-centered leadership in ministry. Participants will develop a practical, working understanding of leadership process and skills and the experiential ability to use the skills. The course stresses the application of leadership skills to various ministry settings, problems, and issues.
