

Why Antitrust?

A Discussion of Antitrust Law as a Career Option

Presented by
ABA Section of Antitrust Law
In conjunction with
Loyola University Chicago School of Law

Moderator: Professor Spencer W. Waller, Loyola University Chicago School of Law

Panelists:

- Chadwick O. Brooker, Assistant Attorney General, Office of the Illinois Attorney General
- Eric H. Grush, Partner, Sidley & Austin
- Patrick J. Kelleher, Partner, Drinker, Biddle & Reath LLP
- James Mutchnik, Partner, Kirkland & Ellis

Many programs and opportunities have been developed to introduce law students to various careers. “Why Antitrust?” is one such program designed as an outreach to law students. Students have the chance to meet and listen to experienced antitrust practitioners discuss the realities of practicing antitrust law. They can also learn about potential career opportunities in government, private practice and in-house corporate positions.

Don’t miss this fantastic opportunity! The focus of this session will be on externship opportunities for students interested in antitrust and consumer protection.

Tuesday, October 21, 2008
5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.
Loyola University Chicago School of Law
25 East Pearson Street, Chicago, IL
Rubloff Reception Room, 1st Floor

Reception will be held at Jake Melnick’s following the session.
