

CHILE STUDY TOUR 2010
SAMPLE STUDENT BUDGET (TENTATIVE)

This budget assumes that the student leaves the U.S. on the evening of Saturday, March 13, arriving in Santiago on Sunday, March 14 (the absolute deadline for arrival), and that the student leaves Chile on the evening of Saturday, March 20, arriving in the U.S. on Sunday, March 21. (The program officially ends in the late afternoon on Friday, March 19.) Arrival or departure on different dates will incur different costs.

Air fare	$1,200*	$1,200
Chile airport tax	$132	132
Room	$68/night (6 nights), incl. brkft. =	408
Activity fee	$200	200
Food	$250-300	300
TOTAL		$2,240

* Approximate. Students are often creative in securing lower air fares. Some students use frequent flyer miles.

 The cost of the room has been about $135 per night, double occupancy (students sharing a room). Students who request a single room will pay the full cost of about $135 per night.

 This is an approximation of the average student expenditure for regular meals during the week in Chile.

Extras (optional):

- Extra meals
- Entertainment
- Shopping/souvenirs
- Personal side trips

NOTE THAT THESE 2010 ESTIMATED COSTS ARE BASED ON 2009 COSTS. ACTUAL 2010 COSTS MAY VARY SLIGHTLY, AND THE EXCHANGE RATE FOR THE DOLLAR IS UNPREDICTABLE AT THIS TIME. MORE ACCURATE ESTIMATES WILL BE AVAILABLE CLOSER TO THE CHILE DEPARTURE DATE.