A November to Remember... to VOTE!

Recent HLS Career Panel Event
On Thursday, October 30th, the Career Development Committee hosted a student panel with HLS board members discussing and detailing summer jobs in health law; how, when and where they got theirs, the application process and job responsibilities, etc. The panel provided advice for 1Ls who are beginning their job searches. If you could not attend the event, please feel free to contact Christine Becer, cbecer@luc.edu, or Sherri DeVito, sdevito@luc.edu, for a summary of information provided.

Visiting Faculty Presentation
On Thursday, November 13 the Beazley Institute will host a lunch presentation with this year's visiting faculty members. Loyola Visiting Professor Matthew Herder, Beazley Visitor Frank Pasquale from Seton Hall Law School, and Beazley Visitor Tina Piper from McGill University will all present their current research projects from 12:00pm - 1:00p.m. in room 105 of the Loyola Law Center. Lunch will be provided. All are welcome to attend! This event will count toward the certificate in health law for JD students. Please RSVP to mbess@luc.edu if you plan to attend. See you there!!

Beazley Annual Symposium
On Friday, November 14, 2008, the Beazley Institute for Health Law and Policy and the Annals of Health Law journal will present the Second Annual Beazley Symposium on Access to Health Care, Perspectives on Patents and Patients: Can They Coexist? Speakers will address the following topics: balancing innovation and access in a global economy; legal and medical perspectives on gene patents; and the role of patents for research in neglected diseases. Join us November 14, 2008, from 8:45am - 3:30pm in Rubloff Auditorium, Loyola Law Center, 25 E. Pearson Street. This program has been approved by the Illinois MCLE Board for 4.75 hours of credit. Registration is open but space is limited! This event will count toward the certificate in health law for JD students. For complete event details, including online registration, visit the Beazley Institute website and click on the Continuing Education link.

HLS Hunger Week Activities
The Health Law Society and Intellectual Property Law Society have teamed up for Coin Wars, part of Hunger Week 2008. Four receptacles will be placed in the locker room on the lower level, one for each of the three 1L sections and a fourth for day and evening part-time students; 2L and 3L students relate back to your first year sections. McFadden's will host a happy hour for the section that raises the most money on November 13th from 6:00pm - 8:00 p.m. When you mention Loyola at the door, $10 entitles you to unlimited domestic drafts and house wine, as well as a dinner buffet. Proceeds go to the Chicago Anti-Hunger Foundation, whose mission is to alleviate hunger in metropolitan Chicago. So start rooting through your couch cushions and cough up some coins for a great cause!

Health Law Writing Contests
Don't miss the opportunity to win cash prizes for your writing! The American College of Legal Medicine's annual writing competitions in health law are now accepting submissions. The Hoffman Bioethics contest offers a first place cash prize of $1000, as does the Student Writing Competition in Legal Writing. The Legal Writing competition awards the Letourneau Award to an outstanding paper by a law student. Submit by January 9, 2009 and visit www.aclm.org for complete details.
