SCHOOL OF LAW FAMILY DAY

Sunday, October 22, 2006

1:00 - 3:00 p.m.

Law School Family Day provides first year students and their friends and families with an opportunity to get to know one another and meet members of the law faculty and administration. The Family Day program and reception will take place at the Loyola Law Center in Rubloff Auditorium. RSVP to Julie Schaff at jschaf2@luc.edu.

VILLANOVA LAW DEAN TO GIVE TALK

"A Catholic Critique of Law and Economics"

Tuesday, October 24

7:00 p.m. - Kasbeer Hall

Mark A. Sargent, Dean of Villanova Law School, will give a talk at Loyola entitled "A Catholic Critique of Law and Economics." Dean Sargent has written and presented extensively on Catholic social teaching and the nature of Catholic legal education, the Catholic liberal tradition and problems at the intersection of law, religion and politics. The program is free and open to the entire Loyola community.

HUNGER WEEK AT LOYOLA

November 6 - 12, 2006

The primary goal of Hunger Week is to heighten awareness of the world hunger crisis and to raise funds for projects directly serving the hungry. Watch for announcements of law school activities that will support this cause.
