Welcome!

If you are reading this, chances are you are new to the neighborhoods surrounding Loyola’s campuses: Edgewater, Rogers Park, and the Gold Coast. Perhaps you are just looking to experience more of what these vibrant, interesting neighborhoods have to offer. The purpose of this publication is to guide you through these areas and beyond.

Within Edgewater, Rogers Park, and the Gold Coast you will find welcoming residents and business owners ready to help you discover why these neighborhoods are so great. This guide includes over 200 business listings, from restaurants and local shopping to conveniences like health clubs and grocery stores. We’ve also included information on how to get around via public transportation or on bikes, and where you can find the best student discounts and deals.

From all of us, “welcome to Loyola. We look forward to seeing you ramblin’ around the neighborhood.”

A special thanks goes to the Loyola University Chicago department of University Marketing and Communications for their vision and layout of this guide. Ramblin’ Around content was created by Mary Miro and Bethany Collins at the office of Campus and Community Planning. Additional thanks go to Sandi Price of the Rogers Park Business Alliance and Katrina Balog and Ally Brisbin of the Edgewater Chamber of Commerce for their invaluable input.

Good neighbor policy

Students are expected to conduct themselves as mature and responsible members of the Chicago and Loyola communities. As such, they are responsible for upholding all federal, state and city laws and ordinances, especially those relating to noise, traffic, parking, zoning, and consumption of alcohol. In addition, as responsible members of society, they are expected to foster an atmosphere that nurtures positive educational pursuits, the development of understanding and tolerance of those with different cultural and political points of view, and an environment that encourages responsible behavior in the community.

Loyola’s neighborhoods

Loyola’s campuses are located in the following vibrant Chicago neighborhoods. We encourage you to explore these and other neighborhoods to experience all that Chicago has to offer. Please see our transportation section on page six for tips on how to get around!

EDGEWATER
Authentication, diversity, and character abound! The neighborhood of Edgewater serves as the southern border of Loyola’s Lake Shore campus. It is home to coffee shops, ice cream parlors, local theaters, shops, and restaurants offering global cuisine—all just a short stroll from the Lake Shore Campus. Explore nearby streets like Granville, Devon, Broadway, and the historic district of Bryn Mawr. Edgewater also offers great beaches. And don’t forget to take your bike for a spin on the Lakefront Trail.

ROGERS PARK
To the North of Loyola’s Lake Shore campus lies Rogers Park, a historic lakefront community composed of the most politically, economically, and socially diverse population in Chicago. You’ll find plenty of interesting shopping, theater, and live music along Morse, Howard, and Glenwood, as well as some of the loveliest and most accessible beaches in the city.

GOLD COAST
The historic Gold Coast neighborhood is home to Loyola’s Water Tower Campus. Hop on the inter-campus shuttle or take the CTA Red Line to the Chicago stop and explore a bustling hub of shopping and culture. Walk along the lake with skyscrapers beside you, or take a night off at one of many top restaurants. Stroll down Michigan Avenue’s Magnificent Mile and wander down surprisingly quiet side streets to experience all that Gold Coast has to offer.
