EDGEWATER CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

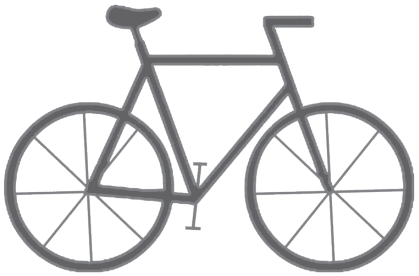
A Publication for Students, by Students

A special thanks goes to intern Ashley Cyborski at the Loyola University Chicago department of University Marketing and Communications for the vision and layout of this guide. Ramblin' Around content was edited by Lauren Vandermar with the help of supporting staff Kelly Ahlman and Philip Kraft, and designer Nicholas Passarelli. The guide was created in cooperation with the Rogers Park Business Alliance and the Edgewater Chamber of Commerce.

Good Neighbor Policy

Students are expected to conduct themselves as mature and responsible members of the Chicago and Loyola University communities. As such, they are responsible for upholding all federal, state and city laws and ordinances, especially those relating to noise, traffic, parking, zoning and consumption of alcohol. In addition, as responsible members of society, they are expected to foster an atmosphere that nurtures positive educational pursuits, the development of understanding and tolerance of those with different cultural and political points of view and an environment that encourages responsible behavior in the community.

ChainLinks



Looking to enjoy a beautiful Chicago day with Chicago's growing bike community? ChainLinks can help you get there! Whether you need a rental bike, a tune-up for your own, or a flat tire fixed, ChainLinks has you covered. As Loyola's student run bicycle shop we are conveniently located in the parking garage on Loyola's Lake Shore Campus. So whether you are a passionate rider or just want to rent for the day, swing on by and let ChainLinks help you out!

Loyola's Neighborhoods

Loyola's campuses are located in the following vibrant Chicago neighborhoods. We encourage you to explore these and other neighborhoods to experience all that Chicago has to offer. Please see our Transportation Section for tips on how to get around!

EDGEWATER

Authenticity, diversity, and character abound! The neighborhood of Edgewater serves as the southern border of Loyola's Lake Shore campus. It is home to coffee shops, ice cream parlors, local theatres, shopping for vintage and new items, and restaurants offering global cuisine—all just a short stroll from the Lake Shore campus! Explore nearby streets like Granville, Devon, Broadway, and the historic district of Bryn Mawr. Edgewater also offers great beaches. Don't forget to take your bike for a spin on the Lakefront Trail!

ROGERS PARK

To the north of Loyola's Lake Shore campus lies Rogers Park, a historic lakefront community comprised of the most politically, economically and socially diverse population in Chicago. Within the commercial corridors of this neighborhood, you'll find plenty of interesting shopping, theater, and live music. Single family homes and mid-rise buildings are set on tree-lined streets, just blocks from some of the loveliest and most accessible beaches in the city.

WATER TOWER

The historic Water Tower neighborhood is home to Loyola's downtown campus. Hop on the inter-campus shuttle to explore a bustling hub of shopping and culture. Walk along the lake with the skyscrapers alongside of you, or take a night off at one of the many high-end restaurants. Stroll down Michigan Ave to experience all that Water Tower has to offer.
