The School of Education proudly announces the Beatrice C. Heimerdinger Scholarship. This scholarship was created by Ms. Heimerdinger’s estate to alleviate some of the tuition expenses for undergraduates pursuing math education. This is a one-time award of $4000 for the successful candidate during his/her final year. The candidate will be selected by the Teaching and Learning Faculty Selection Committee.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Applicants for the Heimerdinger Scholarship must meet the following requirements:

1) Must have senior status in the School of Education at the time of the award and completed a minimum of twenty-four hours of credit at Loyola University Chicago.

2) Middle School or High School Math Endorsement

3) Cumulative GPA of 3.25.

4) Demonstrate a commitment to the service of others.

5) Demonstrate financial need (documents on file with the Office of Financial Assistance)

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Eligible students who wish to apply should complete the attached application and provide the additional documents required to the School of Education February 22. Applications will not be considered after the deadline.

Additional materials required include:

1) A Personal Statement: This must reflect your commitment to the field of education and your goals as a future educator.

Applicants are solely responsible for gathering and submitting all information necessary to the application process. All information submitted is confidential and will be reviewed only by the selection committee.
SELECTION OF RECIPIENTS

Applications will be reviewed by the School of Education. All applicants will be notified by April 1. Awards will be made directly to the student’s tuition account.

If for some reason, the applicant selected must withdraw from student teaching, the award must be reimbursed.
