For a teacher to be successful in the classroom, she/he must know the content—know how to teach the content—and equally important—view her/his students from a strengths model (as opposed to a deficit model).

ACTION PLAN
What are some things you can start doing in the workplace?

What are some things you can stop doing in the workplace?

What are some things you can do differently starting today?