Course Description
Culturally relevant literature refers to texts that portray characters or themes specific to a particular culturally and linguistically diverse group. This course provides teachers with extensive opportunities to select, read, enjoy, ponder, discuss, and apply culturally relevant texts. In this course, teachers learn about (a) culturally relevant literature, (b) the diverse and unique backgrounds of English learners (ELs), and (c) the use of culturally relevant literature to support the language and literacy development of ELs. Organized into these three overarching sections of the course, teachers begin by analyzing culturally relevant literature to develop criteria for text selection that authentically portrays the cultural and linguistic nuances of unique and dynamic groups. Next, teachers utilize culturally relevant and authentic texts to explore the social, emotional, cultural, and linguistic backgrounds, strengths, and needs of ELs, engaging in literature discussions with colleagues around selected texts that feature ELs as protagonists. Finally, teachers connect learning about culturally relevant texts and ELs to consider classroom applications for using and sharing literature to build the language and literacy skills of ELs.

Course Outcomes
Teachers will:

- Describe pertinent theories to explain why relevant literature texts enhance student reading. (ISBE A: 1e; ISBE F: 1b)
- Analyze texts for cultural and linguistic authenticity. (ISBE A: 1a; ISBE F: 1g)
- Select appropriate culturally relevant texts to support student learning in the classroom. (ISBE A: 1c, 1g; ISBE F: 1g)
- Engage in critical dialogue about pertinent issues to teaching culturally and linguistically diverse students, using literature as windows into lived realities. (ISBEA:1a,1c,1e; ISBEF: 1b)
- Build a classroom library of culturally relevant texts that reflect the cultural and linguistic diversity of the school, community, and world. (ISBE A: 1a, 1g; ISBE F: 1g)
- Utilize literature in the classroom to support ELs’ language and literacy development. (ISBE A: 1e, 1g; ISBE F: 1f)

Conceptual Framework Standards: The School of Education at Loyola University Chicago, a Jesuit and Catholic urban university, supports the Jesuit ideal of knowledge in the service of humanity. We endeavor to advance professional education in the service of social justice, engaged with Chicago, the nation, and the world. To achieve this vision the School of Education participates in the discovery, development, demonstration, and dissemination of professional knowledge and practice within a context of ethics, service to others, and social justice. We fulfill this mission by preparing professionals to serve as teachers, administrators, psychologists, and researchers; by conducting research on issues of professional practice and social justice; and by partnering with schools and community agencies to enhance life-long learning in the Chicago area.

Specifically grounded in the principles of Professionalism in Service of Social Justice, this course addresses the conceptual framework in a variety of ways. Teachers will: analyze literature for cultural relevance and authenticity, specifically focusing on the portrayal of culture, language, family, social class, gender, identity, immigration, borders, religion, spirituality, and more; select and make decisions on the curricular materials, specifically children's and adolescent literature, which they utilize with to support student learning and development in current and future classrooms; complete an annotated bibliography to select and apply specific culturally relevant literature that makes meaning for current or future students; and conduct a research project to select a topic related to culturally relevant literature.

As professionals, teachers demonstrate academic honesty—that is, the work of others must be properly cited. Plagiarism will not be tolerated.

Grades:
Turning in assignments is not sufficient to obtain a passing grade. Content and quality of the work, as well as its timely completion, will be considered. Late assignments will result in a lower letter grade. Letter grades will be assigned as follows:
