Let’s work together

The Financial Aid Office (FAO) is committed to helping students finance graduate education. If Loyola University Chicago is your graduate school of choice and you meet admission requirements, we’ll do everything possible to make your dream of an exceptional education a reality. Our financial assistance professionals will work with you to create an award that makes the most of the available financial resources. As partners, we’ll work together to reach toward a common goal: making your Loyola education achievable and affordable.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- Check your To-Do List to see any financial aid documents requested or needed
- Reduce or reject unneeded loans
- Make payments
- Register for classes
- Check your university account

ENROLL IN ELECTRONIC REFUNDS
Refunds resulting from excess financial aid are available at the cashier's office at the beginning of each term. Students can enroll in Electronic Refunds in LOCUS to have refunds deposited directly into checking or savings accounts. However, even if you anticipate receiving a refund, it is best to prepare for the first month's worth of expenses each term.

How does financial aid pay my tuition and fees?
Funds electronically sent to the University, including Direct Federal Stafford and Direct Graduate PLUS Loans, appear as payments against charges after entrance loan counseling has been completed and a promissory note has been submitted. You will be notified by e-mail when loans pay your charges.

Outside scholarships or loans that come in the form of checks must be endorsed by the student at the Office of the Bursar. Students are notified by e-mail when checks arrive.

Purchasing books
LUC.edu/campuscard
Loyola allows students to charge books and supplies purchased at the Loyola bookstore to their University accounts with Rambler Bucks.

Students may add Rambler Bucks to their University accounts up to two weeks before the beginning of each term and during the first week of classes by filling out a charge authorization form.

If you do not wish to use Rambler Bucks, bring sufficient funds to purchase your books at the beginning of each term.
Withdrawals from Loyola

After the last day for cancellation of registration, you may withdraw from courses with permission from the appropriate dean. You may be eligible for a tuition adjustment depending on the date of withdrawal. Financial assistance awards that pay a part or all of your charges are prorated according to the percentage of the term that has elapsed. Funds are distributed according to federal regulations. Refunds for federal assistance (Title IV) will be prorated in accordance with the Higher Education Opportunities Act of 2008 and any related regulations. This may differ from the Bursar’s tuition calculation.

It is the student’s responsibility to inform his/her academic dean that he/she is leaving the University.

For the withdrawal and tuition adjustment schedule, visit LUC.edu/bursar.

Calculating your award

The FAO will use a projected budget to determine your cost of attendance. This budget is estimated based on assumptions in:

- Your academic program
- Where you’ll be living, as reported on the FAFSA
- Your planned level of enrollment

The budget includes expenses paid directly to the University, such as tuition and fees, as well as indirect expenses, such as books, transportation, and a modest amount for living expenses. Your estimated cost of attendance cannot include discretionary expenses, such as car expenses or long-distance phone charges, nor does it take into account personal consumer debt.

Eligibility

To receive need-based federal, state, or institutional funds, students must:

- Be enrolled at least half-time *(4 or more credit hours per semester or 3 or more credit hours per quarter *)
- Be a regular student making satisfactory progress toward a degree or certificate.
- Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen.
- Be registered with the Selective Service if required.
- Sign a statement of educational purpose and a certification statement on overpayment and default (on the FAFSA).
- Have a valid Social Security Number.

Federal regulations require money to be refunded in the following order:

- The student’s payment
