Sin Nombre (2009)
Spanish with English subtitles, 96 min.
Showing Wednesday, November 2, 7-9pm
Damen Cinema, Damen Student Center

Honduran teenager Sayra reunites with her father, an opportunity for her to realize her dream of a life in the U.S. Moving to Mexico is the first step in a fateful journey of unexpected events. The New York Times writes, “The caressing, honeyed light in the film beautifies and softens every ugly moment in this equivocating (inspirational yet hard-boiled) story about geographic and moral border crossings.”