COURSE OVERVIEW
This course will give Loyola University Chicago graduate students advanced knowledge of global HR and employment relations. While traveling to Seville, students will also have the opportunity to connect and study directly with fellow students from the Loyola Andalucía campus. These interactions will introduce LUC students to a different employment culture, traditions, and human resource practices from those that exist in the US. Exposure to new human resources practices within the rich culture of Spain makes this study abroad experience a valuable opportunity.

INSTRUCTORS
Dr. Dow Scott (dscott@luc.edu) is a Professor of Human Resources at Loyola University Chicago. Dr. Scott’s work in human resources spans global HR, talent management, HR development, compensation, incentive pay and creating highly productive teams and organizations.

Dr. Emilio Morales Fernandez (Universidad Loyola Andalucía)

COURSE FEES: TO BE ANNOUNCED
Cost = Tuition + Activity Fee + Airfare

ITINERARY
Pre-Departure
Feb. 19 – March 1: three or four online sessions

In Region:
March 2: Leave Chicago
March 4: Arrive in Seville, Spain
March 5 – March 9: Classroom schedule at ULA
March 11: Depart Seville, Spain

Post-Trip
March 10 or 17: Online examination