HIGHLIGHTS

Learn about the Jewish tradition and the people of Jerusalem through field trips, readings, and lectures all within the dynamic historical, cultural, and political context of the contemporary Middle East.

Experience a 2.5 week academic excursion during the Summer Term throughout Jerusalem. Students will visit key religious and political sites, tour important museums and archeological sites and take a swim in the Dead Sea, ride a camel, and spend a day in Tel-Aviv!

Transform your worldview by visiting sites of religious, political, and historical significance throughout Jerusalem. This course is led by Dr. Bret Lewis, Advanced Lecturer of World Religions at LUC & Dr. Joel Gereboff, Professor of Religious Studies at Arizona State University.
