PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:
This 6 week program in Aix-en-Provence is an intensive immersion experience. Students are taught by resident French faculty at IAU. Students receive six credit hours. All courses are taught in French. Program housing is available at a residence hall or with a homestay for fuller immersion. A Loyola University Chicago faculty administrator is available at all times to accompany students on numerous excursions and cultural events, and to ensure the success of their experience in France.

*COURSE OFFERINGS:

FREN 103/104: Intermediate French
Prerequisite: Completed through French 102 (2nd semester of college French), OR took language placement test and placed into French 103, OR is enrolled in Fren 102 in Spring 2015 semester. This is an audio-lingual review of basics and intensive work into more fluency and accuracy in past, present and future tenses. (six credit hours)

FREN 250/251: Composition & Conversation
Prerequisite: Completion of Fren 104 at Loyola, or placement into 250 or 251 by placement test or AP credits. This course will help students develop greater fluency in speech and writing. (6 credits)

FREN 300: Tutorial for Credit
Tutorial for credit, selecting from among art history, Mediterranean politics, francophone literature, for example.

NOTE: Students are not restricted to combining courses in the pairs indicated above. For example, a student may take Fren 104 and Fren 250, or 251 and a 300 elective as well if that is where they are in their sequence of French coursework. However, classes must total 6 credit hours.
