

IGNATIAN HERITAGE MONTH

OCTOBER 2008

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

AN INTRODUCTION

Ignatian Heritage Month (IHM) is a celebration of the living legacy of Ignatius Loyola (1491–1556) founder of the Society of Jesus (1540) and Patron of Loyola University Chicago. The Loyola University Chicago Mission statement serves as the general theme for this month-long celebration of learning, justice and faith.

Secure in our Jesuit Catholic identity, we understand Loyola as a “home for all faiths.” In the words of Peter-Hans Kolvenbach, S.J., former Superior General of the Society of Jesus, “As a Jesuit, Catholic university, [Loyola] has particular responsibility to focus on Christianity, with special attention on Roman Catholicism. However, as [Loyola] attracts students of other religious traditions, it must explore ways to help them too... Grounded in our own faith tradition, rooted in our personal faith commitment, we are called to encounter other religious traditions. If we engage in serious conversation with people of other faith commitments, and engage in projects of social concern with them, we can often begin to experience our own faith more profoundly and more satisfyingly. What seemed to us as threatening challenges to our personal faith can become new windows of enlightenment to the possibilities of our faith and the faith of others in our world today.”

Whether in celebrating our University community as a true “home for all faiths,” learning more about an issue of faith, of justice, personal calling or serving people in need, we invite the entire Loyola community to explore and recognize the diverse gifts we receive from the living legacy of Ignatius Loyola.

THIS IS OUR HERITAGE. OUR MISSION. OUR IDENTITY.

CELEBRATE WITH US

IGNATIAN HERITAGE MONTH (IHM) provides our Loyola community with a variety of events and activities, which explore the diversity of the Ignatian legacy and heritage, as handed down to us in the 468-year-old Jesuit tradition. Most of the events and activities schedule during IHM are free and require an RSVP. Come out and celebrate with us!

EVENT INFORMATION

10.1 WELLNESS FAIR & A HOME FOR ALL FAITHS

WED 1–4 PM, Gentile Center, LSC

Fun and engaging activities are used to explain more about the eight areas of wellness – social, physical, intellectual, vocational, emotional, spiritual, cultural, and environmental. Explore your personal and community wellness through physical screenings, self-assessments, games, art, and free massage at the fourth annual Wellness Fair.

This year, A Home for All Faiths joins the Wellness Fair as part of the spiritual aspect of wellness. Members of each faith tradition will be present to answer questions and hand out information to give an overview of their beliefs and practices.

Contact the Wellness Center at ext. 8-2530 or visit LUC.edu/wellness for more information.

EL TRACKS: LOYOLA UNIVERSITY'S ROMAN CATHOLIC IDENTITY—A FOCUS GROUP FOR LSC STUDENTS

12–1:30 PM, McCormick Lounge, Coffey Hall, LSC

Loyola claims that it's a Roman Catholic a home for all faiths. Yet, how can it be both fully 'Roman Catholic' and fully open to students of all religions...or, is it? Undergraduate and graduate students are invited to share their observations and opinions in an informal setting. Sponsored by The Joan and Bill Hank Center for the Catholic Intellectual Heritage.

Contact the CCIH at ext. 8-3820 for more information. Lunch will be served. Space is limited. Please RSVP by September 26 to Joe Canino at jcanino@luc.edu or call ext. 8-2091.

10.2 IGNATIAN HERITAGE PRAYER LUNCHEON WITH PROVOST CHRISTINE M. WISEMAN, JD

12:30–1:30 PM, Kasbeer Hall, 25 E. Pearson St., WTC

Prayer luncheons provide Loyolans the opportunity to hear the faith journeys of other Loyolans and to build community with each other. While those giving the reflections speak from their individual faith background, the luncheons are a time for people of all faith backgrounds to come together to reflect. Loyola students, faculty and staff are welcome.

Lunch is provided and RSVP is required by September 24. Contact University Ministry at ext. 5-7727 or e-mail Michael Maher at mmaher@luc.edu for more information.

EVENT INFORMATION

10.12 CELEBRATION SUKKOT AND THE DECORATING OF THE SUKKAH SUN 12–5 PM, Mundelein building south lawn, LSC

Hillel invites all Loyolans to the celebration of the Jewish festival commemorating the dwellings the Israelites lived in during their wanderings in the desert. The festival begins at sunset on October 13 and goes until Simchat Torah ends on October 22. The Jewish people are commanded to erect a sukkah (booth) for one week of the year, to decorate it beautifully, and to eat in it during that week to remember and relive the experiences of their ancestors. Hillel invites the Loyola community to stop by and visit the sukkah at any time.

Contact Patti Ray at pray@luc.edu or ext. 8-2193 for more information

10.15 PARTNERS IN MISSION WED 8:30 AM–1:30 PM, Simpson Living Learning Center, Multipurpose Room, LSC

The Jesuit and Catholic heritage of Loyola University Chicago, established at its founding in 1870, has evolved into a unique culture, as well as a living tradition that has been renewed and refocused by generations of students, faculty, staff, and administrators. This heritage is one that includes appreciation of the rich diversity of faith traditions that Loyola staff and faculty bring to Loyola. Loyola's religious diversity is a vital part of its culture and interfaith dialogue provides new ways to find God in all things, as the Jesuits have done throughout their history.

All new faculty and staff who have joined our Loyola community since February 2007 are invited to participate in this program of conversation, presentations, and lunch so that you will better understand this rich heritage and how your work and your presence here contribute to it. Loyola needs the gifts of all its members in order to carry out its educational mission, and this program will provide you an opportunity to reflect on how you contribute to the mission of Loyola, and how it, in turn, can enrich your life. This event is sponsored by the Office of the Vice President – Mission and Ministry.

For more information and to RSVP, please call ext. 8-2091 by October 13.

10.16 THEMES & TRADITIONS OF SUKKOT THURS 12–1 PM, Mundelein building south lawn, LSC

In the spirit of our Ignatian heritage, Hillel invites the Loyola community to a presentation to learn more about the sukkot celebration. Rabbi Zev Drutman will lead the discussion.

A pizza lunch will be served. Contact Patti Ray at pray@luc.edu or ext. 8-2193 for more information.
