

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

STUDENT NAME _____

ADVISOR _____

STUDENT ID. _____

Date modified _____

CHECKLIST FOR THE MAJOR IN PHILOSOPHY, SOCIAL JUSTICE EMPHASIS

- 1. ___ One lower level philosophy course in the ethics group (181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, or a 300-level equivalent). *182 strongly recommended. Number _____ title _____
- 2. ___ One lower level philosophy course in the metaphysics or epistemology group, including Being Human, but not Logic (171, 172, 173, 175, 176, 177, 179, 180, or a 300-level equivalent). Number _____ title _____
- 3. ___ One course in logic (174 or 301). Number _____ title _____
- 4. ___ Ancient Philosophy (304).
- 5. ___ Classical Modern Philosophy (309).
- 6. ___ Ethics and Society (321) (taken as a service learning course)
- 7. ___ One seminar (395-399) with a Social Justice orientation Number _____ title _____
- 8. ___ One 300-level philosophy elective with a Social Justice orientation * Number _____ title _____
- 9. ___ One 300-level philosophy elective with a Social Justice orientation * Number _____ title _____
- 10. ___ One 300-level philosophy elective with a Social Justice orientation * Number _____ title _____
- 11. ___ One any-level philosophy elective. Number _____ title _____

* Social Justice oriented electives include: 326 (Phil of Law), 326 (Political Phil), 327 (Topics in Political Phil), 375 (Phil of Marxism), 388 (History of Ethics). They may also include, depending on content, 322 (Perspectives on Women), 324 (Topics in Ethics), 389 (Contemporary Phil Issues), and 300-level courses pertaining to Bioethics when they focus on justice issues. Such decisions about course content will be made by the Social Justice Emphasis Director.

For more information, contact the Social Justice Emphasis Director, Dr. Thomas Wren, twren@luc.edu .