

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

Sociology Fall 2008 Colloquium Series

All events begin at 3pm unless otherwise noted.

Sept. 12, Friday

Dr. J. Talmadge Wright
Associate Professor of Sociology
Loyola University Chicago

Modern Digital Play: Possibilities and Pitfalls for Sociological Pedagogy and Research

Damen Hall 966

Sept. 26, Friday

Dr. Laura Miller
Professor of Anthropology
Loyola University Chicago

Consuming the Occult in Japanese
Girl Culture

Damen Hall 966

Oct. 10, Friday

Dr. David Lind
Assistant Professor of Sociology
Goshen College

Encountering Sustainability: Raw Milk,
Raw Routing and Cultural Movement

Hussey Lounge

Oct. 20, Monday

Dr. William "Bill" Domhoff
Professor of Psychology
University of California, Santa Cruz

The Leftmost City in America: Comparing Rival Theories of Urban Power

Hussey Lounge

Oct. 24, Friday

Dr. Fred Block
Professor of Sociology
University of California, Davis

Government, Innovation, and the Uncertain
Future of the Corporate System
Co-sponsored with CURL

Hussey Lounge

Nov. 7, Friday

Dr. David Fasenfest
Professor of Sociology
Wayne State University

Changing Hispanic Neighborhood
Residential Patterns in Major Urban Areas, 1990-2000:
Revisiting Integration and Segregation

Hussey Lounge

Nov. 14, Friday

Ms. Meghan Burke
Ph.D. Candidate
Loyola University Chicago

Not Just Race!: Whites' Diversity Discourses
WORKS IN PROGRESS

TBA

Nov. 21, Friday

Dr. Carla Goar
Associate Professor of Sociology
Northern Illinois University

Race Camps: Transracial Adoption and the Construction of Race

Hussey Lounge