

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

Sociology Spring 2009 Colloquium Series

All events begin at 3pm unless otherwise noted.

Jan. 16, Friday Dr. Lauren Langman Loyola University Chicago	Morals and Mobilization: The Global Justice Movements	Hussey Lounge
Jan. 23, Friday Dr. Rhys Williams University of Cincinnati	Immigration, Religious Culture, and National Identity	Hussey Lounge
Feb. 6, Friday Dr. Jennifer Sherman Washington State University	Coping with Rural Poverty: Economic Survival and Moral Capital	Bremner Lounge
Feb. 13, Friday Ms. Cesraea Rumpf Loyola University Chicago	Some females don't have a problem with being abused: The ideological impact of Chicago's domestic violence court on women's conceptualizations of domestic violence	Bremner Lounge
Feb. 20, Friday Dr. Richard Lloyd Vanderbilt University	Searching for Greenwich Village: Culture and Design in the New Nashville	McCormick Lounge
Feb. 27, Friday Dr. Steve Warner University of Illinois at Chicago	Race and Religion in the American Republic	Bremner Lounge
March 13, Friday Dr. Charles Camic Northwestern University	By-Standers in National Crises: Sociologists during the Great Depression and the New Deal	Hussey Lounge
March 17, Tuesday Dr. Joe Feagin Texas A&M University	Whites and Backstage Racism: A Post-Racial America?	TBA
March 20, Friday Dr. Wendy Cadge	Paging God: Religion in the Halls of Medicine	McCormick Lounge
March 27, Friday Laurie Stoll Loyola University Chicago	Understanding Church Growth and Decline: A Test of the Market Based Approach.	Hussey Lounge
April 17, Friday Dr. Prema Kurien Syracuse University	A Politics of Assimilation versus a Politics of Difference: Religion and Second Generation Indian Americans	Hussey Lounge