This program is a unique opportunity for any student that seeks an immersion experience in a Latin American country. During the first week of this six-week program, students have an intensive Spanish language tutorial and cultural activities meant to prepare them for the rest of the program. During the next five weeks, students divide their time between two days a week at their service placement and three days a week in class. After the program is completed students have the option to participate in an unforgettable five-day trip to Cuzco and Machu Picchu.

COURSE OFFERINGS:

Students will enroll in both courses below and earn six credit hours in total. Students will be taught in English by professors from the Universidad Antonio Ruiz de Montoya.

UNIV 292 International Service Learning: Urban Popular Culture, Inclusion, and Service in Peru

- Learn about the cultural and political practices that shape the “barrios” (shantytowns) in Lima while participating in community-based programs.
- Choose from a placement in the education, health or social service field.
- Fulfills the Core Promoting Civic Engagement Values Area.

PLSC 300C Contemporary Peru: Politics & Society

- Learn how social, cultural, and economic structures shape political developments in developing countries like contemporary Peru.
- Fulfills the Core Societal & Cultural Knowledge Area.

TO APPLY:

Visit LUC.edu/studyabroadapp to complete the quick and easy online application!

As part of the online application you must upload a copy of your valid passport or passport application receipt and pay by credit card a $100 non-refundable Office for International Programs (OIP) study abroad fee.

Prerequisite: All participants must have completed SPAN 102 or the equivalent to participate. While classes are taught in English, students will build their language skills by speaking only in Spanish at their service placement and with their host family.
