Administrative History

Church Women United is a US women's organization founded in 1941 representing Roman Catholic and Protestant women. They identify as "a racially, culturally, theologically inclusive Christian women's movement, celebrating unity in diversity and working for a world of peace and justice." The national organization, Church Women United is comprised of over 1,200 local and state units in the US and Puerto Rico as of 2011, and as a whole, has worked with the United Nations on many occasions. One of these units is Church Women United Peoria, in Illinois, which began in 1942. Since their local unit's inception, they have held monthly meetings and a variety of annual events which bring together women of many local Peoria Christian churches, often having drawn between 25 and 200 people.

CWU Peoria's records mostly contain minutes from meetings, budgets, and events. Three central annual events, May Fellowship Day (May), World Day of Prayer (March), and World Community Day (November) have various materials in this collection, many in the form of newspaper clippings and notes of attendance and actions. CWU Peoria's monthly meetings, annual celebrations, annual board elections, attendance notes, and event materials make up the majority of this collection.

Scope and Content

The Church Women United Peoria Records span 1942-2006. Provenance has been maintained whenever possible, in particular with the organization's notebooks which comprise the bulk of the collection. Other administrative records represented in the collection include awards, booklets, and
