

Documenting the Women's Movement in Chicago: Preserving and Sharing the Sources

Saturday October 11, 2008
9:00 a.m. Registration and Coffee
9:30 a.m - 1:00 p.m. Symposium
Newberry Library
60 W. Walton Street
Chicago, IL 60610

Photo from cover of Feminist Coalitions, Historical Perspectives on Second-Wave Feminism in the United States, by Stephanie Gilmore.

Join the Chicago Area Women's History Council in a symposium as we bring together scholars, archivists, public historians, teachers activists, community leaders, and others to explore new scholarship in the field and learn about procedures for donating your own historical materials to a permanent archive.

Featured Speakers

Stephanie Gilmore, Ph.D, editor of Feminists Coalitions, Historical Perspectives on Second Wave Feminism in the United States, just published by University of Illinois Press, will discuss her research and analysis of grassroots feminist activism.

Janet Olson, MA, Chair of Chicago Area Archivists and Assistant University Archivist at Northwestern University, will present "Preserving the History of Second-Wave Feminism in Chicago: Donating Your Papers to a Permanent Archives."

Meet the Archivists A distinguished group of Chicago area archivists will be on hand to discuss their repositories and collections. Here's your chance to interact with the experts and decide where to deposit your papers.

Learn How You Can Help Talk with Chicago Area Women's History Council board members about how you can participate in the project. Sign up for upcoming activities.

Book Signing and Sale Dr. Gilmore will autograph copies of her new book.

Reservations are required. Admission is free. CPDU Credits will be offered.
For more info or to register: www.cawhc.org or call: 773-227-0093.