

Kumiko Watanuki Papers,
1990, 2003-2005

Creator: Kumiko Watanuki

Extent: 0.5 linear ft.

Location:

Processor: Alexandra DeMonte, February 16, 2007

Administration Information

Access Restrictions: None

Usage Restrictions: Kumiko Watanuki retains ownership of copyright.

Preferred Citation: Loyola University Chicago. Women & Leadership Archives. Kumiko Watanuki Papers. Box #, Folder #.

Provenance: Kumiko Watanuki donated her papers to the Ann Ida Gannon Women & Leadership Archives on April 11, 2006. WLA2006.30.

Separations: None

See Also: Mundelein College Archives

Biographical/Administrative History

Kumiko Watanuki was born and raised in Japan. She has a B.A. degree in Management from Mundelein College, an M.A. in Organizational Development from Loyola University Chicago, and a M.Phil. in Social Anthropology from the school of Oriental and African Studies at the University of London, and a Ed.D. in Adult Education from National-Louis University in Chicago. In her professional career, Watanuki has worked several facets of business including corporate planning, personal administration, operations management, and organizational development. She has also served as a consultant for major corporations in the United States and Japan. In 1991 she became a visiting faculty member for the School for New Learning at DePaul University in Chicago where she has taught classes on business, international relations, and Japanese literature through the lenses of film. She has published several texts on business Watanuki is also active in the Chicago community, as demonstrated by her involvement with the Chicago Public School Reform project and the Program and Planning Committee of the Spanish Coalition for Jobs, Inc.

Scope and Content

The Kumiko Watanuki papers consist of 0.5 linear foot and span the years 1990 to 2005 and are organized alphabetically. The papers consist of Watanuki's published and unpublished writings, including a life history, her dissertation, and a business manual. Subjects covered in her collection include business, her personal history, higher education, adult education, Japanese culture, and Chicago.

Women and Leadership Archives
Ann Ida Gannon, BVM, Center for Women and Leadership
Loyola University Chicago

Series 1: Writings, 1990-2005, Box 1

Contains texts written by Kumiko Watanuki, both published and unpublished. The texts include her dissertation for her Ed.D in Adult Education, three copies of a business manual, and a life history about her experiences in Japan and the United States, her professional business career, family life, and involvement in academia.

Subjects:

Adult Education

Business

Chicago

Higher Education

Japan

Mundelein College

Women and Leadership Archives
Ann Ida Gannon, BVM, Center for Women and Leadership
Loyola University Chicago

Box	Folder	Title	Dates
Series 1: Writings, 1990, 2003-2005
1	1	Business and Career Planning Workbook	1990
	2	Dissertation: Excellent and Culturally Sensitive Teaching and Learning in Adult and Higher Education	2003
	3	East Meets West: Life History	2005
	4	General	1990-1991, 2003