

2024-2025 TEACHING SCHOLARS FELLOWSHIP

APPLICATION

Applicants are to follow the directions below. All required materials are to be combined into a single PDF in order of the component parts and sent electronically to the Graduate School at gradschool@luc.edu. The final application materials must be received at the Graduate School by midnight on Monday, January 29, 2024. No more than two applicants per department will be considered.

In order to be considered complete, your application file at the Graduate School must include all of the following items in the order listed. You should clearly indicate the component parts of your application. Your submission must follow the order in which they appear below. Items A through C should be submitted to your department by January 19, 2024 so that they can append the departmental evaluation (D). Letters of recommendation (E) should be submitted directly to the department by January 22, 2024 for inclusion in the application. All materials must be submitted to the Graduate School by midnight January 29, 2024.

A. Application Information Sheet

B. Application's Background. On no more than three (3) single-spaced pages, using 12-point type, provide the following information in the order of the items listed below. Please follow this format and include the numbered subheadings. You may need to be selective in what you present in terms of publications and presentation in order to remain within the required page limit. Do not include an additional curriculum vitae or résumé.

- 1. Education. List in reverse chronological order all education above the secondary-school level, including training and professional courses. Indicate institutions' names, locations, dates attended, degrees awarded, and field of study.
- 2. Teaching Experience. List all teaching experience at Loyola University Chicago and any other college/university as teaching assistant or instructor. Include any and all teaching/pedagogy training you have had at Loyola or elsewhere.
- 3. Professional/Occupational Experience. List in reverse chronological order all major jobs held, including military service. Indicate job titles or descriptions, employing organization, locations, and dates.
- 4. Other Experience. Describe any major experiences not covered above (e.g., academic study, service-related work, etc.) that are especially pertinent in qualifying you to teach at the university level.
- 5. Financial Support. Indicate any previous grant assistantship or fellowship support with dates received.
- 6. Honors. Indicate any professional honors or awards, with dates received.
- 7. Publications. List all publications in print or accepted for publication. Give full bibliographical citation. Do not list written work that is under review (i.e., not accepted for publication).
- 8. Conference Papers/Posters. List all papers/posters presented (or accepted for presentation) at a scholarly meeting. Give full bibliographical reference.

SCHOOL

2024-2025 TEACHING SCHOLARS FELLOWSHIP

APPLICATION

C. Statement of Teaching Philosophy and Goals, Course Syllabus, and Other Representative Teaching Materials.

1. In a statement not to exceed three (3) double-spaced pages, using 12-point font, discuss your teaching philosophy and your goals as a scholar and teacher. This statement may draw on your previous teaching experience and the materials in the portfolio to illustrate various points. This statement should be written in non-technical language for educated persons outside of your field. Please include a statement of how you create an inclusive classroom environment.
2. On no more than ten (10) double-spaced pages, using 12-point font, provide the syllabus of a course for which you have served (or are serving) as a teacher of record.
3. Occupying no more than ten (10) pages, submit copies of other representative teaching materials from the course for which you have served (or are serving) as a teacher of record.
4. If you do not have experience as a teacher of record, prepare a syllabus for either: (a) a course for which you have served as a teaching assistant that reflects how you would design the course if assigned to teach it (briefly note differences from the original course and explain why you made the changes); or (b) a course you would like to teach. Such materials may include assignments, quizzes, exams, handouts, study guides, exercises, class readings, or graded papers.

D. Department Evaluation Form.

1. The applicant shall complete only Part I of the enclosed Department Evaluation Form.
2. Applicants are to submit items A through C to the department chair and GPD so that they are received no later than January 19, 2024. It is the applicant's responsibility to meet this deadline so that the department chair and/or GPD have sufficient time to complete the Department Evaluation Form and return it directly to the Graduate School office by January 29, 2024. Applicants should also request their letters of recommendation with sufficient time for them to be submitted directly to the department by January 22, 2024 for inclusion in the application.

E. Two Letters of Recommendation.

1. The letters of recommendation from faculty members who know you well are an important source of information for your departmental recommenders and the Graduate Fellowships Committee. One of the letters must be from the applicant's teaching mentor. Use the enclosed forms to request the letters and be sure to do so in a timely manner. The letter writers should receive a copy of your course syllabus, other representative teaching materials, and statement of teaching philosophy and goals (item C above). You should also discuss these materials with them so that they may provide a thorough recommendation to the Committee. The letters are to be submitted in PDF format directly to the department (GPD or chair).

The Graduate Fellowships Committee will make its award recommendations in late February. Questions regarding the application process may be directed to Heather Sevens, Assistant Dean of Student Services, at hsevens@luc.edu.

Instructions for the Department Chair and/or the Graduate Program Director

A departmental representative or representatives are responsible for the completion of this evaluation form. The Graduate Fellowship Committee requests the creation of a small (3-5 person) awards committee within the department to make this evaluation and submit them to the Department Chair and Graduate Program Director for final submission. It is hoped that this will avoid potential conflicts of interest within the department. If this is not possible, the Department chair and Graduate Program Director may serve as sole evaluators. Please type rather than hand-write responses. Because of the importance of the departmental evaluation, please provide complete information. Please note that the quality of a departmental evaluation (not just the rankings) can make or break an applicant in the final selection process. To complete this form, a signature is required of the evaluator(s).
