Zoom Presentation

The Supreme Court and Privacy Rights: Judicial Legitimacy in the Post-Dobbs Era

Susan Mezey, Professor Emeritus of Political Science Loyola University Chicago

Dr. Mezey will discuss new landmark decisions of the Supreme Court, such as the Dobbs case affecting access to abortions. Specifically she will examine how these have and will affect individual rights, particularly for women.

Susan Mezey's teaching and research interests include constitutional law, judicial process, judicial-legislative relations, administrative law, women and law and children's rights. Her articles have appeared in the Journal of Politics, Western Political Quarterly, American Politics Quarterly, Rutgers Law Review, Publius, Women and Politics, and Policy Studies Journal, among other publications. She is the author of many books including Elusive Equality: Women's Rights, Public Policy, and the Law; Transgender Rights: From Obama to Trump; Beyond Marriage: Continuing Struggles for LGBT Rights; and Pitiful Plaintiffs: Child Welfare Litigation and the Federal Courts
