Thank you to all of our generous donors. We wouldn't be where we are without you. Please find the complete donor honor roll online.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

DEAR LOYOLANS,

I am pleased to share an update with you on Loyola's financial progress.

As it has in recent years, Loyola continues to enjoy strong financial performance. In the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2013, the University generated an operating surplus of $30.9 million and an overall increase in net assets of $87.6 million. Funds from the operating surplus were set aside for future debt repayments and to establish quasi-endowments. The University spent approximately $200 million on capital expenditures—primarily at the Lake Shore Campus. Our endowment now stands at over $460 million, its highest ever, thanks to generous contributions from our donors and returns on investment.

We continue to work to make a Loyola education more accessible and affordable. Principal among those efforts is Access to Excellence: The Campaign for Scholarships, which has now reached the halfway mark of its $80 million goal. To date, donors have created 118 new scholarships as part of the campaign. Notable among those is a scholarship that honors storied Professor of Law Richard A. Michael, a new Mallinckrodt Scholars program at the Gannon Center for Women and Leadership, and the first endowed scholarships for dance and studio art students at the College of Arts and Sciences, among others. For more information, visit LUC.edu/scholarshipcampaign.

Our fundraising efforts for the John Felice Rome Center also continue to have an impact. The University has achieved $7.5 million toward the $12 million goal of Insieme per il Futuro, the campaign for the Rome Center. This fall, the John Felice Rome Center received a $1 million gift from Anthony F. Piazza II (JFRC '62-'63), the largest current commitment in its history, which will support capital improvements at the Rome Center. For more information, visit LUC.edu/insieme.

Reflecting our continued growth and progress across all our campuses, Loyola moved up five spots in the latest U.S. News & World Report rankings to 101. This can be attributed to learning environment enhancements, an improved student-to-faculty ratio, an increase in the percentage of classes with fewer than 20 students, increased alumni giving to the University, and many other factors.

Thank you for your continued partnership with Loyola University Chicago. Together, we are making a bright future for our students and our community.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Michael J. Garanzini, S.J." with a stylized flourish at the end.

Michael J. Garanzini, S.J.

PRESIDENT AND CEO
LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

“Thank you for your continued partnership with Loyola.”

FOUNDERS' CIRCLE

Ignatius Loyola was born in 1491 in Northern Spain. As the first General of the Society of Jesus, he composed thousands of letters to those following in his mission of educating youth, ministering to the sick, and serving the greatest needs of society. By 1773, his legacy had created more than 700 schools and 175 seminaries throughout the world. Today, millions of people from all corners of the globe are educated and have served in the Jesuit tradition that he established. Loyola referred to himself as a pilgrim, and he will forever be known for pioneering the vision for the Society of Jesus.

Ignatius Loyola, Francis Xavier, and Peter Faber were college friends whose vision, mission, and prayer were the compass that guided the Society of Jesus and shaped the proud tradition of Jesuit education and service. • The Founders' Circle, Loyola University Chicago's most prestigious giving society, honors the men and women who have made philanthropic gifts totaling more than $100,000 to our University. These men and women have helped to carry on the work of these Jesuit founders.

Francis Xavier, born in Spain in 1506, is considered the greatest missionary since the time of the Apostles. In just 10 years after joining Ignatius Loyola in creating the Society of Jesus, Xavier traveled to Italy, France, Spain, Portugal, India, Japan, and the Philippines to establish educational institutions rooted in the Jesuit mission. He embodied the youthful spirit and idealism of the Jesuit order.

Born in 1506, Peter Faber grew up as a shepherd in the French Alps. He was held in high esteem by his peers for his profound knowledge and gentle sanctity and was the first of the companions to be ordained a priest. He was known as a great listener and counselor, and he became an effective preacher and giver of the “Jesuit Spiritual Exercises.”
