Administrative History

The Brownson Circle was organized in 1917 as a literary club by women in Rogers Park and received its certificate of incorporation on December 31, 1917. The club was named for Orestes A. Brownson, philosopher, essayist, and reviewer, and its mission was to interpret and promote good literature and to engage in works of charity. The main philanthropy of the Brownson Circle was an annual scholarship to Loyola University. Other activities included sponsoring creative writing classes in poetry and short story and participating in civic drives, especially for the March of Dimes and Tuberculosis, and conducting war work during the World War I and World War II. The Brownson Circle was a subscriber to the Park Ridge School for Girls, Trail Rangers, Veterans Bureau, Cancer Research, Blind Babies Fund, and the Mission of Our Lady of Mercy. The Brownson Circle was dissolved on May 26, 1975.
