Administrative History

The Catholic Church Extension Society was established October 18, 1905, to serve the home missions, areas that lacked personnel, organization, and finances. The Extension Society has helped to build churches, educate and support clergy and seminarians, and has provided financial assistance for dioceses in the western and southern states as well as Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines.

Scope and Content

Series 1: Historical Letters and Documents, 1905-1960, Boxes 1-3

The Catholic Church Extension Society historical letters and documents series comprises 1.25 linear feet spanning the years 1905 to 1960 and include letters, telegrams, reports, by-laws, pamphlets, booklets, contracts, flyers, photographs, constitutions, drawings, appointments, and certificates. Materials are in English and Latin; letters in Latin often include English translations.

Several folders are for materials on permanent loan to the Catholic Church Extension Society while the contents of several others are missing. Loans and missing documents are noted on the folders.

This series was received divided between documents in files with pink labels and those with turquoise labels. This division has been maintained, as has the order of materials in those divisions.
