Administrative History

The office of the president was created in 1870 with the founding of St. Ignatius College. Arnold Damen, S.J., served as the 1st president from 1870-1872. Loyola University Chicago has had 23 presidents in its 138 year history, all members of the Society of Jesus. The first 12 served as presidents of St. Ignatius College. When the college was re-chartered as Loyola University in 1909, the 12th president, Alexander J. Burrowes, S.J., became the 1st president of Loyola University. The 23rd and current president of Loyola University Chicago is Michael J. Garanzini, S.J., whose administration began in 2001.

James T. Hussey, S.J., born November 8, 1904, served as the president of Loyola University Chicago from 1945 to 1955. During his tenure as the 19th president of the University, the student enrollment doubled from 5, 160 to 11, 625 students, and the Water Tower campus was established with the acquisitions of Lewis Towers and 41 E. Pearson while the Lake Shore campus saw the addition of two classroom buildings and a residence hall. Father Hussey was educated at Boston College, where he earned both a bachelor's and master's degrees. He was ordained in 1937 and joined Loyola in 1939 as a professor of religion, chaplain for students, and alumni director. In 1943 he became the chaplain of the medical and dental schools and in 1944 was named regent for the School of Dentistry. Father Hussey passed away on November 6, 1977

Scope and Content

The Hussey records consist of 8.0 linear feet spanning the years 1923 to 1949, primarily 1942 to 1949, and include correspondence, reports, and minutes. These records include documents from the presidencies of Robert M. Kelley, S.J. (1927-1933), Samuel Knox Wilson, S.J., (1933-1942), and Joseph M. Egan, S.J. (1942-1945). Arrangement is chronological. Restricted items have been moved to a separate box.
