Biographical Sketch

Arthur Kellner, D.D.S. was a Loyola alumnus and prominent resident of Hollywood, Florida. As an involved citizen of that community, Dr. Kellner was held in high regard by his colleagues and associates. This respect was reflected in the many positions of authority which Dr. Kellner held. He was president of the Hollywood Kiwanis Club in 1931, a city commissioner from 1932 to 1938, and mayor from 1935 to 1938, a position he modestly said he took "simply because nobody else would take the job." Dr. Kellner was also president of the local Hollywood Chamber of Commerce in 1938. In later years he held positions on the boards of directors of both the First National Bank of Hollywood and Hollywood Federal Savings and Loan, and was Director Emeritus of both institutions. In 1963 Dr. Kellner was honored by Loyola as "Man of the Year."

Scope and Content

The Arthur Kellner, D.D.S., collection comprises .25 linear foot spanning the years 1950 to 1974 and include photographs, letters, and articles. This material contains photographs given to Dr. Kellner by J. George Stewart, Architect of the Capitol in Washington, D.C., including photographs showing the President of Brazil, the Shah and Queen of Iran, astronaut Gordon Cooper, President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy, the funeral procession of President Kennedy to the Rotunda of the Capitol, and several photographs of President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson.

An interesting and detailed description written by Mr. Stewart of the duties and responsibilities of the Architect of the Capitol is also contained in this file. In addition, several letters from Mr. Stewart to Mr. Kellner and several newspaper articles concerning Mr. Stewart and some of his most controversial activities as Architect of the Capitol are included.

These files have been arranged by topic. The files containing biographical data have been placed first and the remaining files have been placed in chronological order.
